

Romania ELECTRO-TOTAL is a private company established in 1991 and is one of the most important Romanian system integrators and distributors for industrial automation related products and services. It offers complete solutions including design, field equipment delivery, electrical and automation cabinets, application software, commissioning ...

Our company provides LV electrical Switchboards up to 6000 Amps, custom made to meet the electrical project specifications and to fit within the special room where it will be installed. These are built with the degree of protection, the ...

Romania ELECTRO-TOTAL is a private company established in 1991 and is one of the most important Romanian system integrators and distributors for industrial automation related products and services. It offers complete solutions ...

Our company provides LV electrical Switchboards up to 6000 Amps, custom made to meet the electrical project specifications and to fit within the special room where it will be installed. These are built with the degree of protection, the short-circuit capacity and the form of separation indicated by the project.

Founded in 1999 in Timisoara, Romania, Eltrex has established itself as a leader in the field of electrical engineering, control cabinet manufacturing, and industrial automation. Our journey began with a commitment to delivering complete electrical engineering services and high-quality products for the Romanian market.

Founded in 1999 in Timisoara, Romania, Eltrex has established itself as a leader in the field of electrical engineering, control cabinet manufacturing, and industrial automation. Our journey began with a commitment to delivering complete ...

Electric cabinet Romania

Web: <https://ecomax.info.pl>

