

The project, touted as the largest one of its kind in Africa, envisages the installation of the solar farm at the Edwaleni Hydropower Plant (HPP) in Matsapha, central Eswatini. Planned to span an area of 45ha (111 acres), it will be equipped with 75,000 solar PV panels to produce more than 100 million kWh of electricity annually.

On behalf of Business Eswatini, it is a privilege to introduce this insightful market report on embedded solar generation. As the world transitions toward cleaner, more sustainable energy solutions, the role of solar power is at the forefront of innovation, offering exciting new avenues for growth and development.

The overall electricity access rate in Eswatini is estimated by Power Africa at 83 percent in rural areas and 95 percent in urban areas. GKoE has taken actions to encourage energy battery storage, including offering an SEZ to a company seeking to build a vanadium-flow battery farm funded in part by the Export-Import Bank of the United States.
